1. Troops started to vacate the Hohenlohe Kaserne on Hedlitzerstrasse, Potsdam (N 53/Z 63). on 27 May 1952. Trucks left the installation, carrying billeting equipment, and returned empty on 31 May. Potatoes stored in the basement of the officers club were shipped away on trucks on 3 June 1952. the installation would be returned to the German administration. (1) 25X1
2. On 3 June 1952, the generals' quarter in Babelsberg was vacated and that the furnishings were being transferred to Wuensdorf (N 53/Z 91). Three Soviet commissaries in Potsdam were also vacated and the German personnel employed there were asked whether they were prepared to go to Zossen (N 53/Z 91). (2) 25X1
3. On 2 June 1952, tank trucks were refueled from six railroad tank cars at the Wildpark West railroad station near Potsdam. (3) 25X1
4. On 27 May, between 30 and 35 trucks, were loaded at the ramp of the Doberitz-Elstal (N 53/Z 65) airfield. Thirty of these trucks carried pontoons, one carried a motorboat and the others were loaded with bridge sections. the vertical sections of the half-pontoons were fitted to the sidewalls of the trucks by means of transverse axles. (4) 25X1
5. At about 3 p.m. on 16 May, a train carrying about 60 T 34/85 tanks and about 90 soldiers proceeded toward Ruegen Island via the Ruegen Damm near Stralsund (N 55/P 44). the train was bound for Dranske and Prora on Ruegen Island. (5) 25X1

- Comments.
- (1) The information tends to indicate that units of the 2d Gds AAA Div also moved from the Hohenlohe Kaserne in Potsdam to Wuensdorf.

Zossen. This is credible as units of this division had furnished AA protection for the headquarters of the group in Potsdam. It is not determined whether the units of the division stationed in the Ludendorff Kaserne were also affected by the transfer.

- (2) According to available information, the generals' quarter is located in the Nauener Vorstadt in Potsdam, south of the Pfingstberg. [redacted] the quarters of high echelon officers in the Babelsberg restricted area. The officers probably moved to Wuensdorf-Zossen when the headquarters of the group moved there.

- (3) The refueled tank cars belong to the 56th Motor Transport Regt of the GORP, [redacted] stationed in Wildpark-West until 2 June 1952. 25X1

- (4) [redacted] the loading of engineer units of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army on a train which, [redacted] went from Wustemark to Jerichow on 27 May. [redacted] The unit probably was the engineer unit which moved from Doeberitz to Naumuenster Scaleuse near Altruppin for practices in late February 1952, and returned to the Olympisches Dorf on 19 April 1952. 25X1
- [redacted] As the Olympisches Dorf was occupied by AT artillery units of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army, it is plausible that engineer units of the army are stationed there. Engineers were observed in the Olympisches Dorf in early May 1952. 25X1

- (5) [redacted] the information is of interest for purposes of comparison. 25X1
